We fully comply with current food hygiene and safety regulations and enclose copies of the appropriate certificates.
We are aware that Scotland's Countryside Festival works very closely with Angus Council health and safety officers who will be visiting stand holders throughout the festival. Please make sure you comply with ANGUS COUNCIL'S environmental health policy.
We understand that acceptance is dependent on Jaggy Thistles Ltd. receiving full payment with application.
We understand that Jaggy Thistles Ltd do not approve or condone price-fixing, bullying, or intimidation. Any applicant discovered doing this will be ejected from the site and not invited to return.
We do not issue food vouchers to anyone. Event workers are expected to either bring their own food, or buy food at one of the stands. If stand holders decide to give workers food, this has nothing to do with Jaggy Thistles Ltd. And reimbursement cannot be claimed by the stand holder.
We agree in full to the terms and conditions detailed in the notes of guidance and above.
